Diamondhead reschedules mayoral election

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The Diamondhead City Council met in special session on Friday to reschedule the special mayoral election.

The council set the nonpartisan election for Tuesday, Oct. 20 at the Diamondhead Community Center for Wards 2, 3 and 4 and at City Hall for Ward 1.

The seat became vacant when Mayor Thomas E. “Tommy” Schafer died on July 31 from complications after surgery. The election had been set for Sept. 15, but the council voted to postpone it on Monday because Hurricane Sally at the time appeared to be headed for the Mississippi Gulf Coast on the 15th, and some Diamondhead residents were under evacuation orders.

Although Councilwoman Nancy Depreo and Richard Willis were the only candidates who had qualified for the Sept. 15 election, city officials were initially told that if they postponed the election, they would have to begin the qualifying period all over again.

However, officials said, that turned out to be incorrect, and the council on Friday ordered that the “candidate qualifying deadline was Aug. 26, 2020 at 5 p.m., and by resolution of the council, will not be reopened, thus rendering the election a contest amount those candidates having so qualified for the election previously scheduled for Sept. 15.”

The council further determined Friday that the absentee ballots already cast for the Sept.

Hancock’s libraries set to reopen to the public on Oct. 13

Amber Stephenson, the Hancock County Library System’s Executive Director, on Monday outlined the system’s reopening plans to the Hancock County Board of Supervisors.

Stephenson said that HCLS has been providing computer use at the Bay St. Louis and Kiln branches, which began on Sept. 9, where patrons can book computer appointments.

This service will be expanded to all five branches on Monday, Sept. 28, she added.

Stephenson said the system will open its branches to the public once again on Oct. 13.

“We will be open for walk-ins so you can come in, browse, and use the services you normally use,” she said. “We will still be taking appointments for the computers, but available computers will be available for walk-ins as well.”

Stephenson said that patrons will be asked to wear face masks inside the libraries.

“We will also continue to offer our curbside service as an expanded service to our vulnerable population who may not feel comfortable entering the building at this time,” Stephenson said.

The only service Stephenson said she does not anticipate resuming right away is the public’s booking of the libraries’ meeting rooms and in-person programs.

Waveland suspect grabs for officer’s gun, threatens to ‘Shoot the Police’

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

Waveland police officers on Wednesday arrested a Louisiana man who allegedly tried to grab one of their service weapons and yelled he was going to “shoot the police,” Chief Mike Prendergast said.

Terrence Brewer, 25, from Kenwood, was charged with false identifying information, disorderly conduct, resisting arrest and two counts of aggravated assault on a police officer, Prendergast said in a press release Thursday. Brewer also has active warrants from the Tangipahoa Sheriff’s Office and the Elayn Hunt Correctional Facility.

At around 8:44 p.m. Wednesday, “Officer Patrick Crowe was patrolling the area of Auderer Crowe and Sgt. John Nelson made contact with Brewer on the westbound side of Hwy. 90 near the intersection of Kiln Waveland Cut-off, Prendergast said.

They advised him “to sit on the curb until they could verify his identity through dispatch,” Prendergast said. “Once they learned his identity, the subject began to flee on foot.”

Crowe and Nelson were able to wrestle Brewer to the ground, Prendergast said, "where he was fighting with officers trying to grab Sgt. Nelson's firearm. Officer Crowe and Sgt. Nelson were attempting to restrain the subject who was continuously fighting and yelling he was going to 'shoot the police.'"

Crowe was finally able to subdue Brewer until Nelson got him in custody, Prendergast said.

As of Thursday afternoon, Brewer was still incarcerated at the Hancock County Adult Detention Facility.

Bay-Waveland School Board hears updated enrollment numbers

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

Bay-Waveland School District Superintendent Sandra Reed on Thursday gave the board of trustees an update on the district's first week back of school. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the district opted to push the first day of school back until Sept. 8.

Reed said the district's current enrollment is 1,623 students. The district ended the school year at 1,740, a decrease in total enrollment of 117 children.

"Of the 117, 79 of them signed up for official homeschooling through youth court," Reed said. "What that means is that they're withdrawn from the school district and that their parents have assumed the responsibility for providing instruction to them."

Reed said that 79 students transferred, 22 out of state and 62 in state.

"We have 123 new students to the district," Reed said. "Those numbers don't all add up because we have the Pre-K program and kindergarten enrollment in there, graduating seniors aren't equal to the number of kindergarten students and all those type of things."

Of the decrease in 117 students, Reed said there are 59 students that the district considers "true no-shows."

"At this point, we don't know where they are," Reed said. "We haven't received a records request at any of the schools and we're unable to make contact with them."

Of the 59, Reed said that the district's head registrar predicts that about 25-30 students will "straggle in and late register."

That will leave about 30 no-shows in the district, Reed added.

"But given the current climate and situation, I think our enrollment being down 117 is not bad," she said.

As of Thursday, Reed said, there are 196 students participating in digital learning.

Out of 300 employees, Reed said that only one employee opted to take COVID-19-related FMLA and not be at work every day.

Reed described the district's employees who returned to work as "super cheerful, positive, and happy to be here."

Reed thank the board for allowing the district to push the start date back.

"Some of the lessons that we have learned by starting late we were able to fix," she said. "It was really, really difficult for teachers to do digital and in-person learning at the same time."

Reed said that the district designed a distance learning program that "for the most part" doesn't require teachers to do both.

"I think that's what is making us successful and helping keep it afloat," Reed said.

Reed also said that the required mask policy has "not been a problem."

"They're (students) doing an overwhelmingly great job of doing that (wearing masks)," she said.

Reed also gave the board an update on the district's COVID-19 numbers.

Students' temperatures are screened twice a day.

"The reason that we're doing that is that our whole plan is revolving around keeping sick people out of buildings," she said.

Since the first day of school on Sept. 8, Reed said that there have been about 10 hot temperatures. Of the 10, all were cleared by the nurse and sent back to class.

"Since we started school, we've had one student positive and that was on the first day of school," Reed said. "So they actually arrived at school positive. And we've had zero staff test positive so far."

Reed also said that the district received a $700,000 grant from MDE for technology with a 27 percent match from the district.

She added that the equipment purchased with the grant funds will be delivered in about five to six weeks.

The district is expected to purchase 1,240 Chromebooks; 240 laptops for staff; and 200 iPads for teachers.

"This will increase our ability to offer distance learning, if we should have to have a systemwide shutdown," Reed said.

The district has applied for another grant in the amount of $175,000, and been preliminarily approved for $177,000, Reed said, to use for Internet infrastructure.

Reed said that for a "couple of years" prior to her arrival, the district did not apply for ERate funding.

The district has recently been approved for $250,000 per year for the next three years, Reed said, with a 15 to 20 percent match from the district.

Reed also announced that construction on the district's multi-sport facility and softball field is complete.

The next meeting is scheduled for Oct. 13 at 5:30 p.m.

Senate candidate Mike Espy speaks in Hancock County

On Saturday, September 12, more than 130 people gathered at a social distance at the Depot in Bay St Louis to hear Mike Espy (at left), Democratic candidate for U. S. Senate. One of the few times he has appeared in person on the coast was sponsored by the Hancock County Federation of Democratic Woman. Lakeshore VFW Post 4808/Bayou Caddy Memorial Post hosts benefit for volunteer firefighter David Perks

SEA COAST ECHO

The Clermont Harbor Volunteer Fire Department and Moss Towing teamed up to help support one of their own by hosting a benefit this past Sunday at the VFW Post 4808/Bayou Caddy Memorial Post in Lakeshore. The event was hosted by Assistant Chief David Brown, Bennis Moss, Kecia Sams, Mickey Lagasse and Stacey Cato.

Earlier this month, long-time Volunteer Firefighter and Moss tow man, David Perks, was diagnosed with stage two colon cancer.

Perks has spent more than 20 years as a volunteer firefighter for Hancock County. He formerly served as the assistant fire chief for East Hancock County and in the past has volunteered as a fireman for both Bayside and West Hancock Fire & Rescue.

Currently, he is a lieutenant for Clermont Harbor Fire Department.

Amid Hurricane Katrina, Perks began his tow truck driving career but his passion and love for his community kept him volunteering and going above and beyond to help others in need.

After a close call with death when responding to a tow, Perks became instrumental in leading the nation to comply with a new law that's credited for saving the lives of various emergency personnel all around the country with the "Slow Down and Move Over" campaign.

Perks said his diagnosis was a shock, one far from any fire or smoke, but it's a battle he plans to fight and win.

"I'm a single father of four," Perks said. "I'm all my kids have. They need me and I need them. This may be a different fight to battle but the strength and hope I hold onto is because of them."

Perks also said he intends on returning to work and continuing to stay active with the volunteer fire department after receiving aggressive chemotherapy treatments.

During the benefit, the Clermont Harbor Volunteer Fire Department sold pulled pork plates and the VFW Post sold fried fish plates. The Lost Cause Cooking Team also joined in on the efforts with their world-famous Cajun style cooking.

Also on Sunday, supporters started an online "head-shaving" fundraiser for Perks, which will be announced later. You can go to Clermont Harbor Volunteer Fire Department's Facebook page for more.

Wicker Celebrates Historic Middle East Peace Agreement

Formal Ties Established Between Israel and Two Arab States

It is always an important day when the Israeli Prime Minister visits our nation's capital, but his arrival at the White House on September 15 was something truly momentous. Hosted by President Trump, the Prime Minister signed a historic peace deal with leaders from two Arab nations – the United Arab Emirates (UAE) and Bahrain. This agreement, known as the Abraham Accords, is the first Arab-Israeli peace deal to be signed in more than 25 years. It is especially significant given that only two Arab countries had previously recognized the Jewish state. This agreement strengthens Israel's standing among Arab nations and gives Israel new economic partners in the region.

From the Senate

By Sen. Roger Wicker

possible a new era of Arab-Israeli cooperation. It paves the way for other countries, like Saudi Arabia and Oman, to follow suit and recognize Israel. Such a development would have been impossible to imagine a generation ago, when memories of the Six-Day War and Yom Kippur War were still fresh. In both conflicts, Israel was surrounded by enemies

PRESIDENT TRUMP SET ASIDE CONVENTIONAL THINKING

President Trump deserves praise for bucking the conventional wisdom and brokering this deal. For decades, many analysts argued that Israel would have to strike a deal with Palestinian leaders before peace could be achieved in the region. This meant Israel would have to cede land to the Palestinian Authority, which is controlled by the terrorist group Hamas. This naïve approach ignored the fact that Palestinian leaders showed little interest in striking a peace deal.

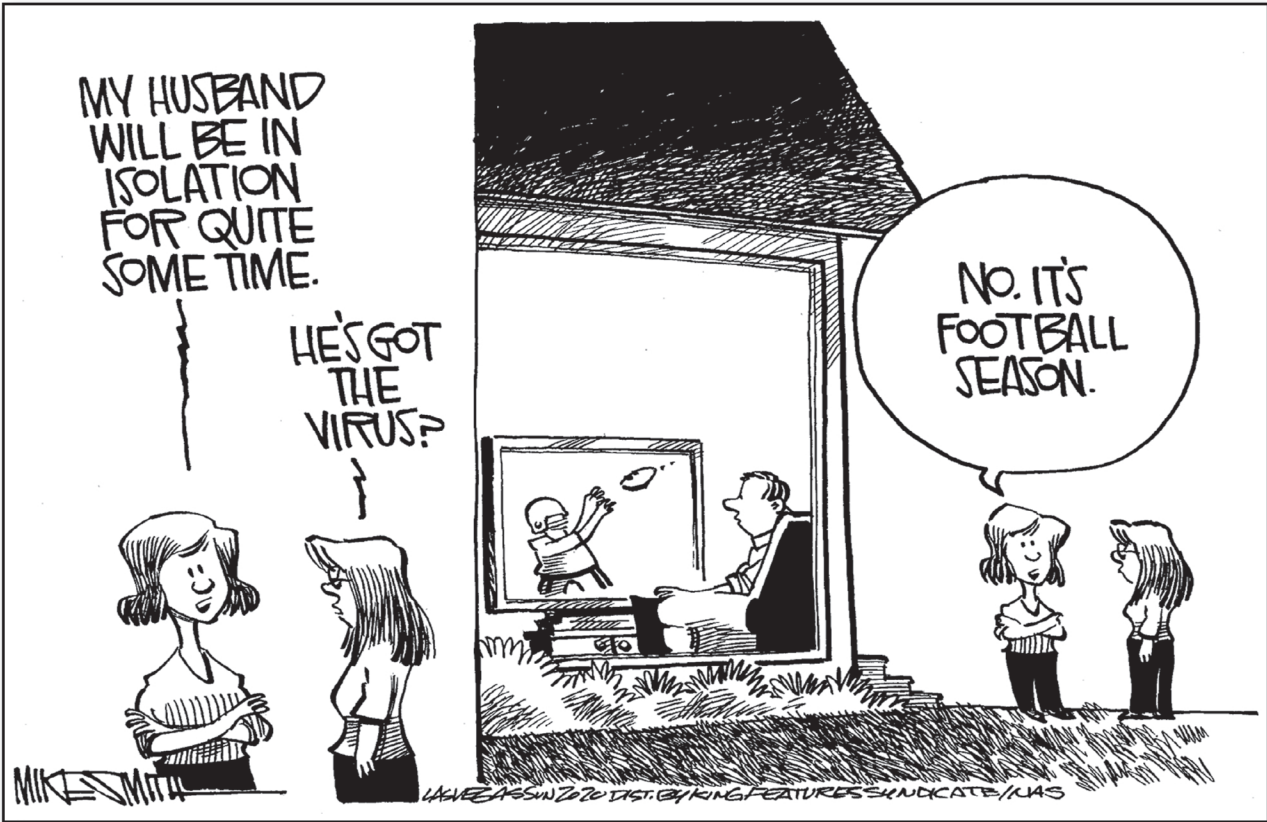

having rejected generous offers in the past.

President Trump brought a fresh approach to the situation. Instead of undermining Israel, he boosted Israel by moving the American Embassy to Jerusalem and recognizing the Golan Heights as Israeli territory. These actions strengthened Israel's position and sent a message that the Jewish state was not going anywhere. This signal encouraged the UAE and Bahrain to come to the table and negotiate a durable peace.

Don't Count on Lower Insurance Costs for Next Year

Steve Schneider owns a digital marketing agency in Indiana where he insures six people on the company's health insurance plan – two employees and their dependents – for about $37,000 a year. He says it's an "ultra-high" deductible plan that requires each family to pay the first of the year's $12,100 in medical costs out of their own pockets and charges totaling $6,050 for each family member before the insurance plan pays.

That's hardly insurance, but that is the norm. "Every year," Schneider told me, "it's how much can we offer and how much can employees pay? How high can I push the deductible to lower the premium?"

Schneider is one of thousands of small business owners who are making that same calculation this fall. In Stowe, Vermont, Jen Kimmich runs a craft brewery and wonders how long she can continue to pay a large share of the costs to insure her 42 employees.

Guest Column

By Trudy Lieberman

She provides full coverage for all her employees even if they work as few as 10 hours a week. "They deserve it," Kimnich says, "but it's expensive, and we don't know how much longer we can keep paying for it."

Why is insurance going to cost so much again this year? Keep in mind that the out-of-pocket costs consumers pay in the form of high deductibles, copays and coinsurance are just as important as the premiums in determining the total cost of your insurance.

Cost sharing is simply another way to make consumers pay more for their coverage.

But why is insurance still so expensive when the news media is full of stories about how Americans have stopped going to the doctor and avoiding medical services, either out of fear of contracting the coronavirus or fear of racking up high medical bills they would struggle to pay?

Don't fewer services mean less demand that would prompt doctors, hospitals, and other providers of medical care to reduce their prices as a way to attract patients? That's the way it works with other goods and services.

Don't bet on it, says Dr. David Blumenthal, president of The Commonwealth Fund, a philanthropic organization in New York City. "The reduction in insurers' costs from reduced use of routine services will be much greater than the cost increases associated with care of COVID-19 patients. That means companies have realized substantial short-term profits.”

Blumenthal added, "Consumers shouldn't assume they will get the benefit of the doubt. If there's any doubt about how much the use of care will go up, insurance companies will assume the worst. That's what investors want."

The companies have market power. Although insurance actuaries, the ones who crunch the numbers, say there is plenty of pressure from employers to keep premiums low, insurers have enough clout to raise deductibles, copays, and coinsurance. That places the burden on those who get sick.

Hospitals, which account for about one-third of U.S. health care spending, also have market clout. Bob Herman, a journalist who covers the hospital industry for Axios, told me, “The public safety net and rural hospitals haven’t been doing great and have been neglected

MDMR urges boaters to take caution around Katrina Key

SEA COAST ECHO

The Mississippi Department of Marine Resources (MDMR) urges boaters to take caution around a project to expand Katrina Key reef on the south side of Deer Island.
Concrete rubble will be deployed by barge to expand the existing Katrina Key structure to the west beginning September 18. Work is expected to last two to three weeks depending on weather conditions. The MDMR requests that boaters allow a 200 foot buffer zone around the barge and spotter boat while construction is underway. Permanent aids to navigation will be installed upon completion of the construction phase.

The MDMR dedicated to enhancing, protecting and conserving marine interests of the state by managing all marine life, public trust wetlands, adjacent uplands and waterfront areas to provide for the optimal commercial, recreational, educational and economic uses of these resources consistent with environmental concerns and social changes. for years. One the other hand, he says, “It’s a different story with the big, urban hospital systems.”
“They are sitting on large rainy-day funds, which were built up by high prices over the years,” he explained. “COVID put a wrench into some of their plans to expand, and expansion is good for hospitals. They are crying poverty but are paying consultants and lawyers millions of dollars to complete acquisitions.”
Many hospitals have begun costly advertising campaigns to drum up business. As that business returns, prices for hospital services are not likely to drop.

Dr. Sandeep Jauhar, a cardiologist at Northwell Health in New York, says hospitals in the state argue, “We need to ramp up care.” He added, “Some departments are being told to not only resume care at pre-pandemic levels but to boost volume of care to make up for financial losses.” In other words, they are being told to drum up business, and in many cases they have enough market power to keep prices high.
While medical experts urge people not to delay needed care, it’s important to remember that Americans often get too much care. “Hundreds of billions of dollars are spent unnecessarily on health care,” Jauhar says, and maybe we should reboot in a different way. “Maybe patients don’t need as much care as we’ve been providing.”

Even if the number of services performed goes down, I’d wager, the price will continue to go up.

leading state sponsor of terror. Iran has also continued working to develop nuclear weapons. A treasure trove of documents captured by Israeli intelligence in 2018 showed that Iran lied to the world about its nuclear activities.
More recently, Iran launched an attack on Saudi oil fields in 2019 and shot down an American drone in international airspace. New reports have surfaced that Iran has plotted to assassinate the American ambassador to South Africa, which would be a brazen act of war.

The Abraham Accords could spark a power shift in the Middle East that will create a bulwark against Iran. Arab countries are realizing that Iran is the greatest threat to regional stability and that cooperation with Israel is in their interest. Such partnerships would boost Israel’s security and would serve American interests by reducing the need for U.S. troops in the region.

I continue to support President Trump’s sanctions on Iran to put pressure on the regime to change its malicious behavior. Even as we continue to exert influence in the Middle East, I hope these budding partnerships between Israel and more Arab nations will counter Iran’s influence and bring much-needed stability to a turbulent region.

When I was a preschool teacher, several of my students brought items from home to sleep with at nap time. One little girl had a blanket, and ten years later, she still has that old blanket.
After all these years, I still have my first Cabbage Patch Doll and a panda that my dad bought me on one of his work trips long ago. They brought me comfort and still do. My little Cabbage Patch Doll rode out Hurricane Katrina with me when I was 23-years-old.
I like to think of it as him having a piece of his aunt around with him when I’m not there. He knows I sent it to him when he was born.
His stuffed animal collection has grown tremendously over the years, but Mickey remains his favorite.

I think having a friend like Mickey has also taught my nephew to be a nurturing, kind, and loving person. He is all of that. Of course, he has his bratty moments, but we all do and that is human nature.
I think that children having stuffed animals or other toys like that is a great way for them to learn how to not only take care of things, but provides an excellent learning opportunity to teach them how to be kinder adults.
If I could afford it, I would send a stuffed animal to some of the adults I witness being rude to each other on social media. Maybe it would help them to become kinder people.
I hope he continues on this path and spreads kindness to everyone he meets, no matter who they may be.

You have to spend money to Make money.

IT'S NOT JUST A SAYING...THE PROOF IS IN BLACK AND WHITE.

1. any circulating medium of exchange, including coins, paper money, and demand deposits.

You have to spend money to Make money.

This is a common English saying . It means that it's hard to make money in a business without investing some money in supplies, products, advertisement or other business expenses.

Who wants to hear that? Probably no one. The truth hurts.

Owning a business is tough. No one ever said it was easy. In owning a business, your goal is to be recognized and successful. Why put in all of the hard work to be basically "invisible"? You see ads that run regularly. These businesses are successful. They're seen weekly whether it be to a flashy logo or an attractive female/male model. The point is that the business is getting noticed. A common phrase heard among salesman and ad representatives is this: "We don't have the money to advertise". Sorry to be blunt, but you probably won't ever have "extra" money if you're unknown. Advertisements in the newspaper can pay big dividends if they are targeted to the right markets and presented in a way that encourages readers to buy.

You need to Know Your Audience. While younger Americans aren't the newspaper readers that their parents and grandparents are, print still offers a way of reaching key demographics. According to a study prepared for the Newspaper Association of America, 65.6 percent of respondents read the newspaper at least once in the past week, and that number rises to 72.6 percent of adults aged 55 and over. Print media is accessed by both genders, with 60.8 percent of each having read a newspaper over the past seven days. If those figures match your target marketing audience, it makes sense to use print to reach them.

Location, Location, Location... Location can't be stressed enough. Newspapers offer the ability to target your ads to better reach a specific customer base. For example, if you're selling sports equipment, advertising on TV during the NFL playoffs is likely cost-prohibitive and may reach many viewers with no intention of buying your wares. A small advertisement in your local sports section has the potential to catch the eye of football fans in your area, getting the local sports fans attention at a fraction of the cost. Make sure your ad is in the right spot in the paper. You're likely to have better luck selling musical instruments in the entertainment section of the paper than in the business or food sections.

JOHN WILLIAM STEVENS, JR.

John William Stevens, Jr, 94, of Hattiesburg, Mississippi peacefully passed away on Wednesday, August 19, 2020, at Post Acute Medical Center, in Hammond, Louisiana. He was a long time resident of Diamondhead, Mississippi and had been residing at Summerfield Assisted Living of Hammond for the past 4 years.

John was born on May 25, 1926 as the son of Mr. John William Stevens, Sr. and Mrs. Myrtis “Mae” Lee of Hattiesburg, Mississippi. His quick-wit and hearty laugh will be remembered and missed by all who knew him! John truly reflected the spirit of the Greatest Generation. He had a deep love for his family, friends, his country and all things related to athletic competition. He saw his beloved America thrust into conflict and when duty called, John did not hesitate and enlisted in the United States Navy to serve in the Pacific during World War II. He was naval airman, serving as a gunner / navigator on a Vought OS2U Kingfisher assigned to the USS Trenton during the Aleutian Campaign. John remained a proud American all of his life, and always took the time to politely ensure our US Flag was respected and correctly displayed where he lived and worked.

Upon returning to civilian life after WW2, John’s love of sports was rekindled and he earned a spot as a pitcher on the Newport News Dodgers, a Piedmont League farm club for the Brooklyn Dodgers. John showed promise, even sending the great Joe DiMaggio back to the bench on strikes during an exhibition game. However, his baseball career was cut short by a broken arm. He never returned to the field of dreams on a professional level but he never lost his love of team sports. He spent many years coaching baseball and football in youth leagues in Algiers. However, when it came to sports, John’s passion was golf. He loved the game, elevating his craft to a near scratch handicap, and played nearly every weekend for most of his life.

John’s professional life was as varied as the times. He began his business career with Ayers Materials as a bookkeeper in 1950. He quickly worked his way up to Vice President of Sales and in 1962 he became part owner and Vice President in charge of Harvey Industries, Inc. John was also very active in the Westbank Chamber of Commerce. He was a member of the Steering Committee for the Westbank Expressway Improvement Project. He served as Chairman of both the Expressway Task Force and Transportation Committee of the Westbank Council and was the first recipient of the Westbank Chamber of Commerce John W. Stevens, Jr. annual award. In 1975, John left New Orleans bringing his construction background, work ethic and dedication to the Louisiana Asphalt Pavement Association (LAPA) serving as Executive Director. During his tenure at LAPA, he received numerous awards for both himself and the organization, including the Sheldon G. Hayes Award, presented annually by the National Asphalt Pavement Association. He also served as National Chairman of the State Asphalt Pavement Association Executives and was a driving force behind the Highway Trust Fund. After his retirement, he was inducted into the Louisiana Department of Transportation and Development Hall of Fame.

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 70 years, Norma Lucille Boulton Stevens. Those left to cherish his memory include his son, John W. “Steve” Stevens, III and wife, Margie, of Mandeville, Louisiana; his brother, Gerald Stevens of Tyler, Texas; two grandchildren, Lisa Callaway and husband Chris, of Honolulu, Hawaii; and John W. “Jay” Stevens, IV, of Raleigh, North Carolina; and one great grandchild, Olivia Callaway of Honolulu, Hawaii.

Visitation services will be held at the Hulett-Winstead Funeral Home, Hattiesburg, Mississippi, on Saturday, September 19th at 11:00am with services to follow in the Chapel at 12:30pm. Burial will follow at Hillcrest Cemetery, Petal, Mississippi.

In lieu of flowers and to support his love of our country, memorials may be made to the Fisher House Foundation at 12300 Twinbrook Pkwy, Suite 410, Rockville, MD, 20852 or to the USO at uso.org.

Hulett-Winstead Funeral Home in Hattiesburg, MS is in charge of arrangements.

Meet Holland. One could never tell by the joy that this happy pup exudes that he has been terribly neglected. Talk about an indomitable spirit and resilient nature! Holland, a 3 year old Doberman Pinscher, came to us severely emaciated, covered in fleas, and with front teeth ground down to the gums. The kind ladies who alerted us to Holland's plight have been checking on him, and we are happy to report that this sweet, sweet boy is on the road to recovery. He has gained considerable weight and is flea free! His coat is beginning to grow in along his back and tail area, too. He wags that little docked tail of his in anticipation of attention and affection, yummy treats, and going for walks. Holland not only loves people, but he is friendly with dogs of all sizes as well. One of his best buds at the shelter is our director's Chihuahua! This happy boy walks best on a leash and harness, and would love a home with a fenced backyard to explore, in addition to daily walks. Holland deserves to be part of a loving family, and we think he would thrive as the companion of a single person, couple or active retirees. He has not yet met any children at the shelter, so families interested in Holland should bring their kiddos to the shelter to meet him. We are not sure of basic training, such as house or crate training, but we will update his profile soon. If you would like to schedule a meet-n-greet with Holland, please call our front desk at 228-466-4516. Please visit our Facebook page, Hancock County Animal Shelter, MS, to see more pictures of Holland, and of the many other wonderful, adoptable animals looking for their forever homes.

ARE YOU ONE THAT WILL TAKE A STAND FOR THE LORD? By GARY ANDREWS

Even in this 21st century the world continues to be in turmoil. It seems that we would have learned from the Biblical history of the past about what happens when people turn from God and put their trust in the world. All one has to do is turn on the news and you hear of unrest in foreign countries because some other religion feels that Christianity is a hoax and their way of life is the only way. You see their strict laws by which their people have to abide and many of them dehumanize women and the poor. This has been this way since the time that Jesus walked on this earth, however there are so many people that don't believe in the saving grace that Jesus offers. Never in my lifetime did I ever think this type of religion would come to America and try to force their views on a nation built on Christian principles. But it is here! I believe that if any of our forefathers could come back to life and witness the ugliness, the distrust, the arguing, the deceitfulness, the rioting, the degradation of others, or any of the sinful nature that is happening today, they would be appalled and ashamed of the way we have let our political system and the American way become. With the lack of leadership in our high ranking officials and the lack of relying on God for guidance our forefathers would be sent to the grave a second time, this time with a sadness of how this world has turned into a worldly kingdom through the worship of Satan and his values. Even though we have strong spiritual leaders in our country, their message is not being heard throughout our land because our leaders and officials do not have the fortitude to stand up for Christ's message and have lowered themselves to the standards of the world. Over the last 50+ years we have allowed our Christian values to be taken away by a few and now it is hard for us to overcome the evil we have allowed to become law. We need someone in a high ranking position to step up and be counted for Christ's sake. Just as in the Old Testament Book of Esther, we see how one person with some authority stepped up from the urging of her cousin, to bring Christian values back where they should be. Evil was exposed through her brave attitude of doing the unexpected and going against the Persian law. Through this the Jews were saved from Haman who wanted to genocide the entire race of God's people. God uses His people in ways that we don't understand, but should have the courage to step up and be counted when He asked us to. What is your stand today on what is happening in our nation? Will you be one that speaks up for the Lord and go against Satan as he tries to convert America to a more sinful nation? What does your witness say about you? So many today have given into the way of the world and support so many vile and evil actions of people because we don't want to hurt feelings. What about you? Do you really think God wants you to be sympathetic to these sinners? In God's eyes, a sin is a sin! Prayer: Lord God I pray that I will speak up for you in any situation and be the example that you expect me to be. Amen.

PUBLIC NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR COASTAL WETLANDS PERMIT AND WATER QUALITY CERTIFICATION Peter Trapolin has filed an application with the Department of Marine Resources requesting permission to conduct regulated activities under the provision of the Coastal Wetlands Protection Act, Title 49, Chapter 27, Mississippi Code of 1972. The applicant is proposing to construct a jetty on his property at 425 1st Avenue, in Pass Christian, Harrison County, Mississippi. The goal of the project is to retain the beach that the previous jetty had created. The proposed jetty will be approximately 56 feet long. The applicant is requesting a variance from Miss. Admin. Code Title 22, Part 23, Chapter 8, Section 103.09 which states, "Groins and jetties to trap sediments are allowed only as a means to reduce shoaling of navigable channels and boat basins.", and has justified these requests under Miss. Admin. Code Title 22, Part 23, Chapter 8, Section 118.01 by stating that impacts to Coastal Wetlands would be no worse than if the requirements were followed. This public notice, project diagrams, and a copy of the full project application may be accessed on MDMR's website at: <http://dmr.ms.gov/index.php/coastal-resources-management/wetland-permitting>. A copy can also be mailed upon request.

In compliance with Section 401 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. 1251, 1341), as amended by PL 95-217, the applicant will request certification from the Office of Pollution Control that the above mentioned activity will be in compliance with applicable provisions of Section 301 (33 U.S.C. 1311), Section 302 (33 U.S.C. 1312), Section 303 (U.S.C. 1313), Section 306 (U.S.C. 1316), and Section 307 (U.S.C. 1317) of the Act and appropriate requirements of the State Law. Any person wishing to make comments or objections to the proposed regulated activity must submit those comments in writing to the Department of Marine Resources by mail to 1141 Bayview Avenue, Biloxi, Mississippi 39530 before 1:00 p.m. on the day October 8. 09/23/20, 09/30/20, 10/07/20

The Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission unanimously approved the organization's $27.2 Million budget for fiscal year 2021, which begins October 1, 2020.

Interim Chief Executive Officer Bill Cotter and staff prepared a presentation for the Commission to review highlights of next year's planned activities including a proposed $20.1 Million in Capital Projects across Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission's Port Bienville Industrial Park and Stennis International Airport and Airpark.

"We have had phenomenal growth of our organization and assets over the last few years, and we do not anticipate this year to be any different" Cotter said. "Our goal continues to be to support the growth of Hancock County through increased jobs and tax revenues for our community. To help achieve this goal, we support our tenants by ensuring their needs are met as our customers".

Some of the highlighted capital improvements planned for The Port & Harbor Commission include Stennis International Airport's recent announcement of the $2.77 apron expansion to support tenant ramp space as well as new hangar space to increase capacity for growth.

Capital Improvements planned for Port Bienville Industrial Park and Railroad include a new $6.2 Million transload facility enabling Port Bienville to combine economical rail service with the flexibility of over-the-road trucking. In short, the transload facility will allow Port Bienville to serve tenants in a less costly fashion, ultimately reducing transportation costs and increase volumes.

"We are excited to break ground on the transload facility project this year, which will increase shipping capacity and modalities for our industrial partners," said Janel Carothers, Chief Development Officer for Port & Harbor. "Drawing on the long-haul capabilities of the railroad, paired with regional market access of barge and trucking, this investment solidifies Port Bienville as a logistics hub within the region".

Staff begins work on the next fiscal year's budget every year in July and presents the next year's budget prior to year-end, typically in September. The preparation and planning put into this process each year outlines a comprehensive strategy for staff to utilize over the next year as a professional guideline.

Bay High improves to 2-0 in comeback win

BY MAURICE SINGLETON
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

The Bay High Tigers got the early lead against Perry Central (0-3), going up 14-0 and leading 17-6 at halftime, but the Tigers would have to come from behind in the second half to get the 31-20 win in Bay St. Louis on Saturday.

The Tigers’ offense came out in the second half attacking the line of scrimmage with two Noah Cutter runs of 15 and 14 yards to get to midfield, but the Tigers sputtered after that with a personal foul penalty, a sack of their quarterback and another penalty for a procedure violation. The drive ended with the Tigers punting, facing fourth and 37 yards for a first down.

Perry Central capitalized quickly, building momentum, scoring twice in the third quarter. On their third snap of the second half, the Bulldogs would score on a 51-yard pass play. A two-point conversion brought them within three points of the Tigers (17-14).

The Bulldogs’ defense stepped up at that point, denying the Tigers a first down on their ensuing possession, forcing a Tigers’ punt. On their first play from scrimmage, Tyrion Sumrall raced to the outside right edge and sprinted 80 yards for the go-ahead score: 20-17 after the point after kick was blocked.

But the Tigers did not despair as they responded with two touchdowns in a span of five minutes. For the first score, Carmello Simpson fielded the ensuing kickoff near his own end zone, taking off right then changing directions and outracing the field for a 98-yard kickoff return, regaining the lead (24-20) for the Tigers with 2:43 remaining in the third quarter.

The game’s final score came on defense as Joshua Bell intercepted the Bulldogs and returned the ball 85 yards for the Tigers with 9:47 remaining on the game clock.

“That play was huge,” said Tigers coach Jeremy Turcotte. “I am so happy that he was able to step up and make a play. He’s the smartest kid on the team, football wise, classroom wise. He’s shift; he’s got decent speed.

“We had a key special team’s play by Carmello Simpson, a key defensive play by Josh Bell and we were able to run the ball and throw the ball when we needed to,” Turcotte explained.

“We didn’t blink,” said Turcotte of his team’s ability to not get down after surrendering the lead in the third quarter. “That’s sought of our mantra.”

The Tigers got their first score of the night following a Bulldogs’

Bay High senior quarterback Josh Peters completed four of seven passes for 61 yards in a steady drizzle on Saturday in a 31-20 win over Perry Central. He also rushed for 59 yards.

turnover, a fumble at the Bulldogs’ 45 yard line. Josh Peters got the Tigers going with consecutive runs of 9 and 17 yards to the Bulldogs’ 16 yard line. Cutter capped the drive with a 10-yard scoring run with 7:19 remaining on the first quarter clock.

On their next possession the Tigers went 93 yards on eleven plays as Peters mixed in some pass plays of 14 (Hosea Singleton), 10 (Terron Bedford) and 23 yards (Singleton) with a 7-yard keeper and a 21-yard carry by Cutter. Simpson carried five yards for the score.

Trevor Bordelon kicked a 21-yard field goal to close out the first half scoring with a 17-6 lead for the Tigers.

“It’s our offensive line,” said Peters of the Tigers’ ability to run the ball through the first couple of games. “I think they came out respecting that last week we passed really well, so they backed up a lot. So when you see that you know that you have to take advantage of it.”

The Tigers were forced to run the ball more than they may have wanted to because of a steady drizzle throughout the game. And the Tigers ran the ball well as they amassed 182 rushing yards, led by Cutter with 106 yards and a touchdown and Peters with 59 yards.

“Noah Cutter made an ESPN highlight play and got flagged for hurdling a guy,” Turcotte explained. “That’s illegal in high school. He got penalized 15 yards for hurdling a guy. Not a lot of people don’t know that it’s illegal to hurdle a guy in high school football, but I’m not going to tell him to not be the great athlete he is. He is an incredible running back; he is a load, and he is good.”

Peters completed four of seven passes for 61 yards. Bordelon scored on four of four on point-after-kicks and a 21-yard field goal.

The game was changed from Friday to Saturday after schools were closed due to Hurricane Sally. But the Tigers didn’t appear to miss a beat as they scored on offense, defense and special teams.

The Bay High football team travels to McComb this Friday for a matchup of Tigers as they take on McComb High School (1-0).

Rocks halt Bearcats 14-6

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

The Saint Stanislaus Rock-a-chaws took to the road for the first time this season as they crossed the Bay Bridge to take on the Long Beach Bearcats in a non-division contest.

The Rocks (3-0) remained undefeated on the season with a 14-6 victory over the Bearcats (1-2) at Lance Lumpkin Stadium.

SSC used a strong defensive performance highlighted by two fourth stops in the fourth quarter to preserve the win.

SSC head coach Nate Encrapera commented, “With the hurricane closures this week, it made it difficult to prepare for a split back veer offense in just one day of practice. As the game wore on, we were able to figure it out from a defensive perspective and get the stops we needed. We played well on both sides of the ball at times but we have to get much better really quick if we want to compete with Poplarville Friday night.”

SSC quarterback Gage Peterson (#18) looks for a lane downfield in the Rocks’ 14-6 victory over Long Beach Friday night. Peterson finished the night with 11 carries for 47 yards and two touchdowns.

SSC converted an on-side kick attempt to start the game but had continued trouble with consistent offensive execution.

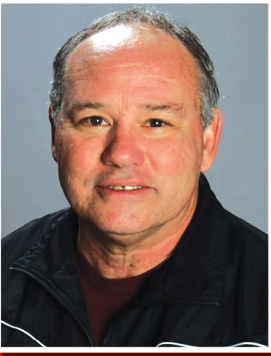

On their second possession of the game, the Rocks drove 78 yards for the score. Chandler Chapman started the drive with a 39-yard gain followed by six yards from Kyle Stegall, 14 yards from Davien Lagarde and another 11 yards from Stegall before Gage Peterson scored from nine yards out with 5:36 left in the opening quarter. Gene Hoffman converted on the PAT to make the score 7-0.

Brady Favre, Blake Bilich, Ryan Tyler, Ryan McClellon, Trustin Northington and others helped keep the Bearcats at bay.

Three possessions later, the Rocks took over at the Long Beach 17 yard line but could not find the endzone instead having a 36-yard field goal attempt blocked.

After a solid defensive effort, SSC took over on the Bearcat 46 yard line. Peterson called his own number four times on
